

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

United States,
Plaintiff
v.
Clifford James Schuett,
Defendant

2:14-cr-00364-JAD-GWF-1

10 On April 7, 2015, I sentenced Clifford James Schuett to 75 months in prison after he pleaded 11 guilty to one count of threatening to kill or cause damage by explosive.<sup>1</sup> In July 2016, Schuett filed a 12 “Motion for a Rule 35,” a “Motion in support of Rule 35,” and a motion for a hearing on these 13 motions.<sup>2</sup> Though Schuett’s motions were difficult to decipher, it appeared that he was actually 14 attempting to challenge the conditions of his confinement rather than the legality of his sentence 15 under Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 35. I denied the motions and instructed Schuett that, if he 16 wishes to challenge the conditions of his confinement, the proper vehicle for doing so is to file a civil 17 suit under 42 U.S.C. § 1983, not a motion in this closed criminal case.<sup>3</sup>

18 The day before my order denying Schuett's motions was entered, Schuett dispatched a new 19 motion for hearing on his Rule 35 motion, a new motion in support of his Rule 35 motion, and a 20 motion for appointment of counsel.<sup>4</sup> Like his previous filings styled as Rule 35 motions, Schuett's 21 new Rule 35 motions appear to challenge the conditions of his confinement rather than the legality of 22 his sentence. For the reasons discussed in my previous order, Schuett's motions are denied, and 23 Schuett is again instructed that any further motions in this case attempting to challenge the

3 Conclusion

4 Accordingly, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that defendant's motion to "Return to this

6 240], and "Motion for Appointment of Counsel for Rule 35" [ECF No. 241] are DENIED.
